

30th Annual IASBS Meeting on Condensed Matter Physics and Quantum Technology School

May 28 -30, 2025 (7 -9 Khordad 1404)

Organized by

Department of Physics

Quantum Materials, Soft Matter & Biological Physics, and Complex Systems Groups

Aims and Scope

The aim of this meeting is to bring together experimental and theoretical scientists in the fields of condensed matter, soft & biological physics, and complex systems to present their most recent research and to create an atmosphere for fruitful discussions. The poster session provides an excellent opportunity for young researchers and students to gain invaluable experience through personalized on-the-spot Q&A.
